Dear Mr.

On Oct. 1st, 1917, I was present at the hearing before the Board of Grievances and Inquiries, held in the City Hall, Boston, Mass., to hear the testimony of the Marshals of the Boston Police Department. The purpose of the hearing was to ascertain exactly what had been done by the Marshals in the execution of their duty. The Board of Grievances and Inquiries is a body of men appointed by the Mayor of Boston to inquire into all complaints against the police force.
